WHEREAS, on or about April 26, 2006, the above described real property was sold and sale proceeds in the amount of $349,518.71 were provided to the Government to hold in escrow until the forfeiture count in the Information was resolved;

NOW THEREFORE, pursuant to Defendant Latoya Cotton's Rule 11 Plea Agreement entered on December 19, 2005:

1. Defendant Latoya Cotton shall forfeit to the United States of America any and all of her interest in the proceeds from the sale of the real property located at 8445 Chatham Drive, Canton, Michigan, in the amount of $349,518.71, property which constitutes or is derived from proceeds directly or indirectly, as the result of violations of 18 U.S.C. § 666, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 981(a)(1)(C) and 28 U.S.C. § 2461.

2. Accordingly, Latoya Cotton's interest in the $349,518.71 ("Subject Property") is hereby FORFEITED to the United States of America for disposition in accordance with the law, and any right, title or interest of Defendant Latoya Cotton IS HEREBY AND FOREVER EXTINGUISHED.

3. Upon entry of this Order, the United States or a designee is authorized to seize the Subject Property, pursuant to Federal Rule of Criminal Procedure 32.2, to conduct any discovery that the Court considers proper to help identify, locate, or dispose of any asset seized, and United States is authorized to begin proceedings consistent with applicable statutory requirements pertaining to ancillary hearings and the rights of any third parties.

4. The United States shall publish at least once for three successive weeks in a newspaper of general circulation, notice of this preliminary forfeiture order and of its intent to dispose of the above Subject Property in such manner as the Attorney General may direct, pursuant to 21 U.S.C.

§ 853(n). Said notice shall direct that any person other than the Defendant asserting a legal interest in the Subject Property may file a petition with the Court within thirty (30) days of the final publication of notice or of receipt of actual notice, whichever is earlier. The petition shall be for a hearing before the Court alone, without a jury and in accordance with 21 U.S.C. § 853(n), to adjudicate the validity of the petitioner's alleged interest in the Subject Property. The petition must be signed by the petitioner under penalty of perjury and must set forth the nature and extent of the petitioner's alleged right, title or interest in the Subject Property, the time and circumstances of the petitioner's acquisition of the right, title, or interest in the Subject Property, any additional facts supporting the petitioner's claim, and the relief sought. The United States may also, to the extent practicable, provide direct written notice to any person or entity known to have an alleged interest in the Subject Property.

5. Following the Court's disposition of all petitions filed, if any, upon proof of publication and notice to any persons known to have alleged an interest in the Subject Property and upon entry of a Final Order of Forfeiture, the United States shall have clear title to the Subject Property and may warrant good title to any subsequent purchaser or transferee.

6. Pursuant to Fed.R.Crim.P. 32.2(b)(3), this Preliminary Order of Forfeiture shall become final as to the defendant at the time of sentencing and shall be made part of the sentence and included in the judgment. If no third party files a timely claim, this Order shall become the Final Order of Forfeiture, as provided by Fed.R.Crim.P. 32.2(c)(2).

7. Any petition filed by a third party asserting an interest in the Subject Property shall be signed by the petitioner under penalty of perjury and shall set forth the nature and extent of the petitioner's right, title or interest in the Subject Property, the time and circumstances of the petitioner's acquisition of the right, title or interest in the Subject Property, any additional facts supporting the petitioner's claim and the relief sought.

8. After the disposition of any motion filed under Fed.R.Crim.P. 32.2(c)(1)(A) and before a hearing on the petition, discovery may be conducted in accordance with the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure upon a showing that such discovery is necessary or desirable to resolve factual issues.

9. The United States shall have clear title to the Subject Property following the Court's disposition of all third-party interests, or, if none, following the expiration of the period provided for the filing of third party petitions.

10. The Court shall retain jurisdiction to enforce this Order, and to amend it as necessary, pursuant to Fed.R.Crim.P. 32.2(e).
